 Pews and Rights in Houses of Public Worship are deemed in law to be Real Estate, except in Boston, where they are to be considered as Personal Estate.

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

IS a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no partial authority or control over the Churches.

Their meeting is holden in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually; and the following day at eleven, A.M. after transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent Widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815.—That a standing Committee of 30 be appointed, 5 of whom shall be chosen centrally; and the remainder in different parts of the State. The five shall act as a Reporting Committee, to receive from the other members of the Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of persons who may be subjects of the charity of the Convention, and having considered the same, shall judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the 1st day of their meeting, annually; further, that the names of said Committee shall be annually published in the Massachusetts Register.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. Dr. Kirkland, Rev. Dr. Holmes, Rev. John Pierce, Rev. Charles Lowell, Rev. Joshua Huntington, are the Reporting Committee.

Accordingly, when the widow of any Congregational Clergyman is considered an object of the charity of the Convention, it is desired, that answers to the following questions be given by one of the Standing Committee, by the first of May in each year, to be communicated to the Reporting Committee, that they may possess the documents for making the correct report to the Convention.

1. What is her age ?
2. What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children ?
3. What is a fair estimate of her property ?
4. What is her ability to help herself ?
5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance ? And in what way do they assist her ?
6. What is her income ?
7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity ; or make it desirable, that she should have aid, this year ?

The Convention earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity which learned and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.

Rev. Charles Lowell, of Boston, Treasurer.

Rev. John Pierce, of Brookline, Scribe of the Convention.

The General Association in Massachusetts.

THIS body was organized in June, 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines, which have been generally embraced by the churches of New-England, as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance and usefulness as ministers of Christ."

☞ Annual meetings last Wednesday in June.

Rev. ENOCH HALE, of West-Hampton, is the standing Scribe of this Association.
